PreVisor expands global footprint with new distributor in Latin America

Key partnership with Human Talent Technologies paves way for talent measurement sector growth

ATLANTA, GA – (PRWeb) February 18, 2010 – PreVisor, the global leader in employment assessments and talent measurement solutions that connect employment decisions to business results, announced today an agreement with Human Talent Technologies (HTT) in Bogotá, Colombia. HTT is the latest of several international distributors for the company, and will represent PreVisor in Latin and Central America. PreVisor has local offices with dedicated servers in Australia and the U.K as well as distributors in Asia and Europe.

“With their depth of experience in the market, there was little question from the beginning that HTT would be our preferred partner in the region,” stated Jeff Holmen, Vice President – Alliances & International for PreVisor. “HTT is owned and directed by experienced talent management professionals from Drake Beam Morin (DBM) who have worked extensively with other talent acquisition tools and services in the Latin American marketplace and their team is well respected by HR professionals and business executives across the region.”

“HTT chose PreVisor specifically to increase our current offerings based on PreVisor’s unique job-based approach to talent measurement. Through HTT’s long-term relationship with DBM and hundreds of corporations and government entities across Latin and Central America, we foresee many new opportunities and rapid business expansion,” said Juan Carlos Linares, Managing Director DBM Bogotá, Colombia.

PreVisor CEO Noel Sitzmann commented, “This partnership is key to our international growth strategy and HTT brings a very professional team with much experience in the Latin American talent management marketplace.”

PreVisor recently presented at the DBM-sponsored HR Talent Management Best Practices forum in Houston, Texas. Attendees included Latin American talent management executives from global organizations such as Shell Oil, Schlumberger, Lyondell Chemical, Bancolombia, Empresa de Telecomunicaciones, Occidental Petroleum.
